Injury sidelined this outstanding prospect last year before he ever had a chance to get underway. Drafted as a "red shirt" in the fifth round in 1962, Burke went on to earn All-America honors at Oregon State in 1963 and was chosen Most Valuable Lineman as an end on the West squad in the Shrine East-West game. Then a knee injury in a pre-season game last year cut him down and he saw no regular-season action at all. Was named "Outstanding Player" in the Junior Rose Bowl in 1959 when he played for Bakersfield JC, for which he also was named All-American. Was a first-team selection on no less than seven different All-America teams in 1963. Born in Bakersfield.

FORTY NINER COACHES
JACK CHRISTIANSEN
Head Coach

Even though he hasn't played since the 1958 season, 49er Head Coach Jack Christiansen is still recognized as one of the best defensive backs the National Football League has ever known.

And, after a little less than two seasons as San Francisco's coaching leader, he has already established himself as one of the foremost young men in the NFL's coaching ranks.

Chris will be in his third season as 49er head coach after being named interim coach on Sept. 30, 1963, and taking over the top job on a permanent basis prior to the 1964 season.

Chris has spent his entire NFL career with just two teams. Eight playing years (1951-1958) were with the Detroit Lions, and he has been a member of the 49er coaching staff since 1959.

He was the Lions' sixth draft choice in 1951 and soon justified the club's selection by becoming an All-Pro selection in his second year. All told, he was named All-Pro in six of his eight seasons and participated in five consecutive Pro Bowl games.

Statistically, as leader of the famed "Chris's Crew," Detroit's tough defensive secondary (which also included Jim David, now a 49er assistant), Chris totaled 46 interceptions for 717 yards and three TDs; 85 punt returns for 1,184 yards and eight TDs, and 59 kickoff returns for 1,429 yards. He still holds all NFL records for scoring on punt returns.

Prior to joining the Lions, Chris was an outstanding football player and sprinter at Colorado State University.

Chris and his wife, Doris, live in Palo Alto with their four daughters—Terri, Jacki, and twins Jani and Joni.

BILL JOHNSON
Assistant Coach

San Francisco fans who followed the nine-year playing career of Bill (Tiger) Johnson, always rated him among the top centers in the game. Their confidence was justified when he was named on the All-Time Pro Bowl team by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

Bill was captain of the Tyler, Texas, Junior College team that won the national title, plus the Little Rose Bowl classic in 1947. These honors followed almost three years in the Pacific with the Navy.

Signed by the 49ers primarily as a linebacker in 1948, he played very little as a rookie because of a broken wrist. But he took over the following season at offensive center and provided much of the blocking that made the 49ers noted as pro football's strongest running club in the early 1950's.

Bill and his wife, Dot, reside in Palo Alto, Calif., with their three children—Bill, Jr., 16, Sherilyn, 15, and Tommy, 8.

FORTY NINER COACHES

DICK VORIS
Assistant Coach

Beginning his third campaign with the 49ers is Dick Voris, who joined the staff after two years as Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach with the Green Bay Packers.

Voris, a graduate of San Jose State, was an outstanding center and linebacker at Santa Cruz High, Hartnell Junior College and San Jose.

His coaching career started on the high school level. He returned to Hartnell as head coach for two seasons (1952 and '53), his teams going undefeated in 21 games. He was line coach of the Los Angeles Rams in 1954 and in 1955 joined Earl Blaik's staff at West Point as line coach and chief assistant. He was a third year member of the Army staff when he resigned to become head coach at Virginia. He left Virginia in 1961 to join the Packers.

Dick and his wife, Idelle, live in Mountain View with their three children—Richard, Jr., 17, Susan, 15, and Ronald, 14.

BILLY WILSON
Assistant Coach

Billy Wilson rejoined the staff in the spring of 1964 as offensive end coach and the return was immediately hailed by 49er fans.

In slightly more than nine years of National Football League history, Billy engraved his name deeply into gridiron records. His nine full seasons, plus four games in 1960, show a total of 407 pass receptions, one of the great marks of its kind in the NFL.

Drafted by the 49ers in 1950 as a 21st "redshirt" choice, he joined the club in 1951 and immediately gained a place among the NFL's leading receivers. He tied for the pass receiving crown in 1955 with 53, then led in 1956 with 60 and again in 1957 with 57.

Billy, who has Sac and Fox Indian blood, was born on a reservation near Sayre, Okla. He grew up in Campbell, Calif., and served three years in the Navy before enrolling at San Jose State where he was an All-Coast performer in both football and basketball.

A perennial All-Pro choice, his biggest thrill was being named the Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl in 1955. Billy and his wife, Shirley, live in Campbell with their four children—William Wynn, 11; Greg, 8; Holly, 6; and Tracy Marie, 2.

JIM DAVID

Assistant Coach

Jim David, a teammate of Jack Christiansen on the famed Detroit Lions clubs of the mid '50s, was selected by Chris in 1964 as the 49ers' new defensive backfield coach.

Jim came to the 49ers from the Los Angeles Rams where he first served as defensive backfield coach under Bob Waterfield and then as a college talent scout last season.

A member of the great "Chris' Crew," Detroit's defensive backfield that featured Yale Lary and Bob Smith (and Karl Karilivacz for two years) in addition to Chris, David was six times selected for the West's Pro Bowl squad, and played on four Western Division championship Lion teams, three of which won the World Title.

Jim, 37, also was a Colorado State teammate of Chris.

During his eight seasons with the Lions (1952-59), David intercepted 36 passes and was an all-out, tenacious competitor.

Y. A. TITTLE

Assistant Coach

Y. A. Tittle, one of the game's magic names, remains a part of professional football, despite his retirement as an active player, by working with the San Francisco 49ers in an advisory capacity as a part-time coach.

Tittle, recognized as one of the best quarterbacks ever to play in the National Football League, does special work for Head Coach Jack Christiansen with the 49er quarterbacks. He also sits in on offensive planning sessions.

Actually, Y. A. has rejoined the team with which he spent most of his National Football League career. The former LSU star played 10 of his 18 active seasons in 49er livery before his final four years with the New York Giants.

When he retired after the 1964 season, Tittle had thrown 3,817 passes, completed 2,118 of them for 212 touchdowns and 28,339 yards, more than 16 miles in yardage. He also has a career pass completion average of an amazing 55.4 per cent.

Tittle, who will be 39 in October, was NFL "Player of the Year" in 1957 after leading the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the same honor again in 1961 and 1963 as he took the Giants to Eastern Division championships.

FORTY NINER TALENT CHIEFS

LYNN O. WALDORF
Director of Personnel

A former president of the American Football Coaches Association and one of the most respected men in sports, Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf joined the 49er organization in 1957. Since then, he has built up a talent-scouting force second to none. His efforts have been responsible for many new faces on the San Francisco roster in the past four years and the 1964 crop of newcomers is rated among the finest in the club's history.

A tackle at Syracuse University in the early 1920's, he coached at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma State, Kansas State and Northwestern before taking over what he termed the "Sleeping Giant" at the University of California in 1947. Under his tutelage, the Golden Bears won three consecutive Pacific Coast Conference titles—1948-49-50—and represented the West in the annual Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena. His 10-year record at California was 66 wins, 32 losses and four ties.

One of the nation's top after-dinner speakers, Pappy is especially noted for his limitless supply of limericks. He and his wife, Louise, live in Berkeley. They have two daughters and five grandchildren.

JACK WHITE
Director of Scouting

Jack White joins the 49er talent hunting staff as full-time director of scouting this year after having served the squad in a part-time capacity for many years.

Although employed fulltime as Director of Personnel for the New York Yankees, White served as part-time 49er talent scout from 1951, concentrating his efforts in the East and South.

Many of the current 49ers were signed by Jack prior to his joining the club full time. One of the best known in the sports talent field, Jack served football before baseball, having been an assistant coach with the old New York Football Yankees.

With the Baseball Yankees, Jack served in varied capacities that ranged from ticket manager for the parent club to general manager of a minor league team in the Yankee organization.

Jack now makes his home in Palo Alto, Calif.

TWO IMPORTANT FORTY NINERS

LINCOLN KIMURA
Trainer

Beginning his third season as head trainer for the 49ers is Lincoln "Linc" Kimura, one of the most highly regarded men in his field.

Kimura began as a student assistant trainer at San Jose State in 1946 while an undergraduate. He earned his AB degree in 1948 and became the school's first full-time trainer, a job he held until joining the 49ers full time.

Linc, who also holds a Master's degree in education from Stanford, is a charter member and former president of the Pacific Coast Trainers Association. He has been secretary-treasurer of the organization since 1955, and holds several committee appointments in the National Athletic Trainers Association.

CHICO NORTON
Equipment Manager

Regarded as one of the most knowledgeable men in the business, Chico is beginning his 11th year as equipment manager for the 49ers.

He also works for the San Francisco Giants stadium maintenance crew at Candlestick Park, putting in half a season with the Giants before serving the 49ers full season.

Chico first entered professional athletics when he went to work for the San Francisco Seals baseball team in 1948.

His real first name is Forrest, the Chico coming from his home town of Chico, Calif. Norton now lives in San Francisco.

THE 49ER STORY — 1946-1965

From a modest beginning in 1946, the San Francisco 49ers have grown into one of the most flourishing franchises in professional sports.

A major league football franchise in the City by the Golden Gate had long been the cherished dream of Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native son and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara. Failing to win recognition from the National League, Tony turned to the All-America Conference, which began operations in 1946 with the late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, as the guiding genius.

Although the AAC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city. Sports fans of the entire Bay Area took the 49ers to their hearts and attendance grew by the proverbial leaps and bounds.

The club's success was predicated on Tony's oft-repeated slogan of "Go first class or not at all," and his early organization was built around such honored names as Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, head coach; and Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykalski and Len Eshmont—all of whom were already top drawing cards in collegiate and pro football.

The 49ers were the perennial runners-up to the mighty Cleveland Browns throughout the history of the AAC and, masterminded by Shaw on the bench and Albert on the field, became noted nationally for daring, colorful football. The AAC ended its short but exciting life when the Browns defeated the 49ers, 21-7, in the championship game of 1949, San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore became members of the NFL.

After 14 years of slam-bang battling in the NFL, the 49ers have yet to win even a divisional championship. They've come close, tying Detroit for seasonal honors in 1957 but dropping the playoff. But in every season except seven—1950-55-56-58-62-63-64—the San Franciscans have been in the thick of the title fight.

49ER STORY (Con't)

Here are the highlights, beginning with the first year in the NFL:

1950—The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951—In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y. A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952—After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953—The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954—Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Rex Berry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955—With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.

1956—In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957—This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R. C Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958—An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959—With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 unset of Cleveland. J. D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960—Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Watres threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961—The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the T and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.

1962—For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963—Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964—Once again injury to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season, although they were "in" virtually every game until the final moments. Defense came along in the second half of the season so well that the 49ers were considered one of the better defensive teams in the league at year's end. Outstanding rookie performances by end Dave Parks, quarterback George Mira and linebacker Dave Wilcox also helped take some of the sting from the 4-10 over-all record.

49ER BAND

The colorful San Francisco 49er band came into existence just two years after the 49ers themselves began operations. Joe McTigue, the man who is still their leader today, organized the 49er bandsmen in 1948 from the ranks of the many outstanding professional musicians in the Bay Area.

Since the 1948 season, the 49er band has performed at every home game the football team has played, and both the band and the 49er majorette corps have served effective public relations arms of the parent organization.

The 49er band is one of only three marching bands directly associated with teams in professional football. The other two are the Baltimore Colts band and the Washington Redskins band.
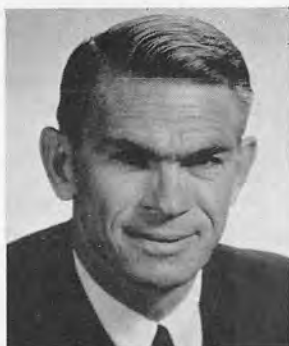

McTigue is not only director of the 50-piece band, but is also in charge of arranging half-time shows put on at 49er games by other organizations. In addition to the versatility of his own band, McTigue has created a tradition of fine half-time performances no matter what organization is doing the performing.

Two of the special half-time shows which the 49ers will produce this season are the annual 49ers Pompon Contest, slated for the Baltimore game, Oct. 31, and the NFL-Ford Punt, Pass and Kick Contest, which will be held at the Los Angeles Rams game, Nov. 21.
